To the Citizens of Memphis: The daily spread of the epidemic, and in creasing calls upon us for relief in every conceivable shape, is exhausting the liberal con-tributions heretofore received, and we are forced to call on all who are able to help us either with money or supplies. Under the circumstances it is impossible to call on parties at their places of business. We wish this o be taken as a personal appeal to any individual under whose notice it may fall to help us feed and take care of this afflicted and dis-tressed people. Contributions can be made
